(Full Office Note)

Subject † Normal school, Mysore
An Additional Hindustani teacher on Rs 30 a month and Promotion of certain Munshis, have been proposed by the I Gl in his letter No 9174/325 d the 22nd April 1903

Note *
The present staff is reported to be inadequate
The addition at cost to State funds is ½(600) 300 a year as shown below —

Present scale (Moulvis' classes)		Proposed scale
		1 Additional teacher — 30
1 Moulvi Hazrat Hassan Khan Pay Rs 36 (+30-3-45)	36	2 Moulvi Hazrat Hassan Khan Rs 51 (45 36)	51
2 Moulvi Muhammad Khadri (20 2 3) Pay Rs 30	30	3 " Muhammad Khadri Rs 33 (30 3 45)	33
3 Moulvi Secunderuddin fixed pay Rs 20 —	20	(4) " Secunderuddin Rs 22 (2 = 3)	22
	56		Rs 136

Additional cost = 50×12 = 600

only Half the cost of Mysore Normal school is at present borne by State Funds, as the whole charge is Therefore the additional involved to State Funds is - $\frac{1}{2} \times$ Rs (600)

Rs
= 300

The IGE recommends strongly the above additions and promotions
Submitted for orders

If the proposals are sanctioned, the additional cost involved viz Rs 300 will be included in the State Funds budget Estimates for 1903—1904

The Dewan through the 2nd Councillor.

Mr Bhabha has made out a strong case for the employment of an additional teacher and for the promotion of Moulvis The Moulvi classes seem to be doing good work I agree to the Inspector General's proposals being sanctioned and to the small increase of Rs 300 consequent thereon being included in the budget for 1903-04

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL OF EDUCATION IN MYSORE

No 9174 Bangalore 22nd April 1903

From

H J BHABHA Esq, M.A.,
Inspector General of Education in Mysore

To

H Venkatanarasappa Esq, M.A., B.L.,
Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
General Revenue Department,
Bangalore

SIR

I have the honour to inform you that a great step in advance was taken three years ago by the institution of Moulvis' Classes in the Normal School Mysore and of a new Examination called Moulvis' Examination which will be held for the first time in November next under Examiners chosen from the Anglo-Oriental College at Lahore. At the same time Arabic was introduced as a subject into the curriculum of the Middle Secondary Examination. Arabic bears the same relation to Persian and Urdu as Sanskrit does to a Vernacular language; and it is hoped that by the encouragement given to the study of Arabic not only will the qualification of Village and High School Munshis be improved, but the departure will secure the services of abler Headmasters for the Hindustani Middle Schools of the Province and it will be possible to introduce into these schools the elements of Arabic as a subject as has long since been done in the schools of Punjab and United Provinces.

2. The number and pay of the staff organised three years ago by Orders No 4909-X-10 Ed 7-27-96 and 4911-12-X Ed-7-27-96 both dated the 4th October 1900 for the additional instruction rendered necessary by the opening of two Moulvis' Classes and the introduction of Arabic into the Upper Secondary curriculum, have both proved inadequate. The actual addition to the staff of the Normal School was the appointment of two Moulvis, one in the second grade of Moulvis Rs 30-3-45 and the other on Rs 20, while the additional work entailed was 77 periods of 50 minutes each. The work in the Moulvis' Classes is in quality equal to or higher than similar work in B A classes and for the satisfactory performance of it it is absolutely necessary that the teachers should not be overburdened as they are now. I propose therefore after inspecting the Normal School and carefully considering its wants, that an additional Muhammadan F A or experienced matriculate teacher on Rs 30 should be added to the staff for relieving the Moulvis of work in the lower printed Copies sent up.

Classes I request that the pay of this additional teacher may be sanctioned from 1st July 1903

3 Moulvi Mazhar Hassan Khan who has been brought down all the way from Panjab has passed the Moulvi Fazil or highest Arabic Examination of the Panjab and has proved himself to be an able and learned professor of Arabic and Persian He passed the Moulvi Fazil Examination in 1898, and is the most learned Moulvi to be found in Southern India He is very much dissatisfied with his present pay of Rs 36 in grade II of Munshis Rs 30-3-45 Men of his qualifications and standing in Panjab and United Provinces are paid from Rs 50 to 150 a month I request therefore he may be placed in grade I of Munshis Rs 45 rising to 60 with a commencing salary of Rs 51 He richly deserves the promotion and without his help it will be impossible to carry on the work of the Moulvis' Classes

To the place of Moulvi Mazhar Hasan Khan in grade II of Munshis I propose that Moulvi Mir Muhammad Khader, a local man, who has proved an excellent teacher of Persian may be promoted He reached the maximum pay of Rs 30 in grade III two years ago and may be given a commencing salary of Rs 33 in grade II

Moulvi Secunderuddin, a local

Moulvi, who was taken as an Assistant Master in Arabic has worked hard and successfully. He has a fixed pay of Rs 20 at present. I propose that he may be placed in Grade III of Munshis in place of Mir Muhammad Khadir with a commencing salary of Rs 22

4 The above proposals may be summed up as follows.

Present scale.	Proposed scale.
	1 An additional 7 A or Matriculate Muhammadan teacher on Rs 30
1 Moulvi Mazhar Hasan Khan, Grade II, 30-3-45, Present pay Rs 36	2 Moulvi Mazhar Hasan Khan Grade I, Rs 45-3-60, Commencing salary Rs 51
2 Moulvi Mir Muhammad Khadir, Grade III, Rs 20-2-30, Pay since 1901 Rs 30	3 Moulvi Mir Mahomed Khadir, Grade II, Rs 30-3-45, Commencing salary Rs 33
3 Moulvi Secanderuddin on fixed pay of Rs 20	4 Moulvi Secanderuddin, Grade III, Rs 20-2-30, Commencing salary Rs 22

Last year I had proposed the promotion of Moulvi Mazhar Hasan Khan, but Government were not pleased to sanction my proposal If Government be not pleased to sanction the above proposals from 1st July 1903, I should be sorry to remain responsible for the success of the Moulvis'

and Upper Secondary Vernacular Classes of the Mysore Normal School in future

I have the honour to be,
